'Stars' come out for cinema

A GLAMOROUS Marilyn Monroe was among several film star look-alikes who mingled with Saturday shoppers in Haverhill. They were helping to promote the opening of the new five-screen multiplex cinema which opens to the public this Friday. Cineworld's Haverhill general manager Paul Willden said: "Historically, the cinema has been a place that brings the community together and we are confident this will be the case in Haverhill." See story and pictures – Page 5.

Teen praised after reporting racism

POLICE have praised a 15-year-old girl who spotted a supervisor from Haverhill committing a racist crime while on a work experience placement at a children's nursery.

The teenager raised the alarm after seeing Lisa Ring, who is white, mock a black toddler.

She alerted a teacher when she returned to school and police began an investigation.

Earlier this week Ring, 37, a mother of two, was fined £500 after being convicted of racially aggravated harassment by magistrates in Harlow.

"This young woman exposed a very nasty piece of racist behaviour – which, without her, would have gone unnoticed," said a police spokesman.

"We thank her for her actions. She deserves every credit. It's an excellent example of how the community and the police should work together."

Ring, who denied any wrongdoing, made monkey noises at the 18-month-old black boy as he played with a toy banana, the court heard.

Magistrates heard how she told another member of staff that the boy did not understand and that she was having "a bit of fun".

Nursery bosses have sacked Ring for gross misconduct, the court heard.

Neither the teenager, the toddler nor the nursery can be identified for legal reasons.

Appeal reaches £27,000 after 40th anniversary

HAVERHILL Fire Station celebrated its 40th anniversary by flinging its doors open to the public on Saturday.

Hundreds of families flocked to the fun-filled open day to mark the occasion, which also raised £100 for our Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, as well as cash for the Firefighters Charity and Haverhill Food Bank.

The latest cash takes our total to £27,000, well on the way towards our £40,000 target.

Visitors were able to get up close to two vintage fire engines and a fire engine from Stansted Airport, as well as watch firefighters at work in road traffic collision and house fire rescue demonstrations. Police, ambulance and highways representatives were also on hand to give out help and advice.

Children were entertained with various activities including "soak the firefighter". A barbecue, raffle, tombola and sale of various fire service memorabilia helped top up the funds for the appeal.

Crew manager Chris Hare said all the firefighters agreed they would like to help boost our appeal, which was launched in February to pay for patients in the Haverhill area to receive services in their own homes rather than travelling to the Bury St Edmunds Hospice.

Mr Hare said: "The people's local fire station is at the heart of the community and that is why we decided to hold an open day. That way we could celebrate 40 years of service with everyone."

Also present in the celebrations were retired firefighter Peter Marsh and full-time firefighter Michael Adshead, who have both served with Haverhill Fire Service for nearly 30 years.

Ian Norris, fundraiser at the hospice, said: "The open day was a fantastic way to raise money for the appeal and was a classic example of people's generosity.

"We are already at £27,000 meaning by Easter time next year we should have hit the £40,000 mark."

"We are so grateful for everyone's efforts and really cannot thank them enough."

■ On Saturday Haverhill Lions Club will be backing our appeal with a stall on Haverhill Market Square for World Sight Day.

The club will be spreading out a large picture of a lion on the square and asking members of the public to cover it with coins, preferably the gold coloured £1 or £2 coins.

The proceeds will be divided between the Weekly News Hospice at Home Appeal and Lions sight charity efforts.

The Lions Club has always been involved with sight and internationally has raised cash over the past two years to tackle river blindness and other conditions.

How can you help?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fund-raising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible.

If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhill weeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

More help for victims of 'mini strokes'

PEOPLE who suffer from "mini strokes" will receive faster treatment closer to home thanks to a new specialist clinic at West Suffolk Hospital.

The new weekly clinic, for patients who may have suffered a transient ischaemic attack (TIA) will start at the hospital next week.

Consultants will be able to assess, investigate and treat TIAs, also known as "mini strokes", meaning this early treatment may prevent many people from having full strokes.

Previously, patients from West Suffolk have had to travel to Cambridge's Addenbrooke's Hospital for the service.

Ruth Empson, stroke services facilitator at the hospital, said: "This clinic will speed up the time in which patients are seen, as well as cutting down the amount of travelling they have to do.

"We would encourage anyone who has suffered weakness in one side of their face, arm, leg or who has slumped or jumbled speech to tell their doctor.

"It is important for people to take such symptoms seriously because if they are caused by a TIA, early treatment can help make sure things do not get worse."

A TIA is caused when the brain is temporarily starved of oxygen, often by a disruption to blood flow caused by a blocked artery.

The new clinic will help make sure patients can be seen by senior consultants specialised in treating strokes within a week of their suspected TIAs.

Car cruisers to show off vehicles at council event

A SPECIAL event is to be organised to allow "car cruisers" to show off their vehicles.

The move by Haverhill Town Council – which has been praised by the chamber of commerce – follows complaints about the "nuisance drivers".

The custom car fanatics have been congregating in Haverhill's car parks causing complaints from businesses and residents about noise, loud music and litter in the evenings and at weekends.

Haverhill Town Council has urged police to monitor the "car cruisers" but is also planning an event next year so that they can show off their vehicles.

Town clerk Gordon Mussett said: "We have decided to organise an event which can involve car cruisers and give them something to do.

"We understand that loud engines and booming music are not acceptable in the evenings, which is why we are looking to make these drivers more aware of the residents around them.

"But at the same time these drivers spend a lot of money and time on their vehicles and there is a lot of pride there. If we can encourage them to understand why there are complaints being made about them then maybe the result will be best for both parties."

Mr Mussett added: "People should not worry – it is not going to be a huge midnight parade of custom cars zooming through Haverhill.

"We are thinking of an event where the drivers can show off their specially-modified vehicles and sound

BY Jordan Day

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

systems, and generally get together with other car enthusiasts."

Sarah Howard, chair of Haverhill Chamber of Commerce, praised the council's plans.

She said: "I think it is a very good idea. An event where these drivers could get together would combine their interests and show that people are not against them but just some of the nuisances that they are currently causing."

But resident Gwen Dalton, who is also a committee member for the Chalkstone Tenants and Residents' Association, wondered whether the council's plan would be a success.

She said: "Yes, it is positive that the town council is looking to sort the issue, but will one day a year really have much of an effect? These drivers speed around the area with their music pumping and loud exhausts. I think more serious action needs to be taken."

What do you think?

Hats off for charity effort

SLIMMERS have been getting their knitting needles busy making tiny hats to help raise money for Age Concern.

Members of the Slimming World Club which meets in Haverhill on Tuesday mornings are knitting little hats for Innocent smoothie bottles to support a campaign being run by Innocent and Sainsbury's to raise money for the charity.

This is an annual event and last year 23,250 hats were knitted by Sainsbury's staff and supportive groups, with a whopping £11,625 raised for Age Concern.

Julie Collis, who runs the Haverhill Slimming World group and also works at Sainsbury's, said: "This is a fantastic charity. Everyone hopefully will get old one day and will appreciate all the good things that the Age Concern charity can do for the elderly, including helping to keep warm this winter."

Couple's fears over lost confidential mail

A CONCERNED couple have attacked Royal Mail after various confidential documents have been lost in the post.

The Haverhill couple, who want to remain anonymous so that they do not become the victim of fraudsters, say a series of letters from Addenbrooke's Hospital failed to turn up two months ago.

The hospital confirmed the documents, which contained test results and upcoming appointment times, had been sent.

The couple complained to Royal Mail.

Duplicates also failed to arrive as did the husband's pay slip after years of receiving them through the post.

The latest disappearance is the couple's most recent bank statement, which was meant to arrive in the mail last Friday.

The couple said: "We were quite concerned when the hospital letters failed to turn up but the fact our wage slip and bank statement have vanished is really worrying.

"These are confidential documents that under no circumstances should be disappearing in the post.

"We have contacted Royal Mail so many times and all they do is pass us on to different people who say they will get back to us, but they never do."

A Royal Mail spokeswoman said the company was unaware of any delays or missing mail in the Haverhill area, despite the couple's phone calls.

She said: "We are concerned to hear of the customers' experience as we are not aware of any delays or missing post in Haverhill.

"We can assure the couple and all our customers that all the mail we receive into the office is delivered, as the office is cleared on a daily basis.

"We would recommend that they call our customer care line directly on 08457 740740 with any concerns about specific items so that they can be investigated."

'Stars' boost Cineworld countdown

LIGHTS, camera, action – Hollywood has officially hit Haverhill.

Film fans have been sent into frenzies with the doors of the eagerly-awaited Cineworld opening to the public on Friday, October 10.

But celebrations around the town kicked off way before this – in fact the whole of last week has been spent marking the grand opening of the five-screen multiplex cinema.

Youngsters from the Lisa Mason School of Dance performed ballet numbers, tap numbers and danced to scenes from High School Musical in the Market Square on Saturday.

There were also famous film star look-alikes dotted around the town centre on the day giving locals the chance to have their photos taken with some of the stars that will soon be appearing on their big screen.

Lisa Mason, principal of the dance troupe, said: "We were really excited to mark the launch of Haverhill's new cinema and the kids had a great time performing."

"We are so looking forward to the new Cineworld opening – it will be a great addition to community life in Haverhill."

The Haverhill Weekly News teamed up with the cinema to offer lucky readers 30 tickets for a special screening of the Coen brothers' film Burn After Reading, starring George Clooney and Brad Pitt.

Alex Preece, from Cineworld, said: "The first 15 entries flooded in within about half an hour of the paper being delivered through people's doors."

"It was a really popular competition and proved that residents are obviously eager to try out their new cinema."

CP.

"The preview screenings were a perfect way of introducing the cinema to the town."

Located in Ehringshausen Way, the cinema will be holding Movies for Juniors screenings on Saturday, which will run every Saturday with children watching films and enjoying fun and games for just £1.

Cineworld Haverhill general manager, Paul Willden, said: "We are all really excited to be opening a Cineworld in Haverhill."

"Historically, the cinema has been a place that brings the community together and we are confident this will be the case for Haverhill."

Charity bowls

AN ANNUAL charity bowls event is taking place on Saturday in aid of St Nicholas Hospice and spectators are welcome to go along.

Withersfield Carpet Bowls Club will be holding its annual event at Grampian Country Foods pavilion in Little Wratting. Having raised thousands for various Cambridgeshire charities, the club members decided this year the proceeds would go to the Bury St Edmunds Hospice, which caters for the whole of west Suffolk. Altogether there will be 32 teams battling it out in their bowling shoes, as well as home-made cakes for sale and food on offer all day.

Crash on A1307

A THREE-VEHICLE crash on the A1307 left one person with serious injuries.

One car ended up in a ditch and another vehicle in the middle of the carriageway following the crash at Linton last week.

The notorious road has seen 28 people lose their lives in the past 10 years.

Business workshop

FREE workshops are being run in Haverhill for people who have decided they want to run their own business but need guidance.

The workshops being held during school hours are on how to write a business plan, what needs to be included and what financial details need to be considered.

The next workshop in Haverhill is on Thursday, October 23, at Holland's Business Centre. For more information ring (01284) 760206.

Special needs provision lacking

Open letter to Cllr Patricia O'Brien, portfolio holder for children, schools and young people's services

I have just started campaigning for a special school in Haverhill for children that are of mainstream ability but still have considerable difficulties in coping in mainstream schools so it is good news that you are organising a review to create a new day school for children with the most severe social emotional and behavioural difficulties (SEBD).
I implore you to seriously consider building this school in Haverhill. Our town is expanding rapidly and for a large town like ours, the provision for special needs children is sadly lacking, for instance the county inclusive resource provision has to come right across the county from Ipswich. Towns in Suffolk that are smaller than our town, such as Sudbury and Newmarket, have special needs units.

We have a large amount of special needs children attending mainstream schools in Haverhill and I feel it is because of the financial implications in sending some of them part-time to special units across the county or full time out of county, that our special needs children in Haverhill miss out. I also know that one of the reasons some have behavioural difficulties is because of the stress from going to mainstream schools.
These children also desperately need to be taught social and life skills to enable them to become more independent later on in life and mainstream schools just do not have the experience, expertise or capacity to teach them these essential skills therefore, unlike some of the children who are taught in special schools, as adults they tend to rely on relatives or care workers.

Haverhill Town Council is having a meeting with your special needs officers on November 25 at the arts centre starting at 7pm to talk about special needs in Haverhill and I would be delighted if you are able to attend.

Chalkstone field belongs to community

Sir, We write about the recent mention of the so-called community football scheme.
We as residents are against this proposal.
We as a family have used the Chalkstone field for over 30 years and we don't intend seeing it go to waste on some hair-brained scheme, our children use this field.

This land belongs to the community not to the Rovers Football Club or council.

Mr McGerty makes the comment that it will benefit the whole town, but we and a number of others think not. It was also mentioned that the present Rovers' ground does not meet some ground rules.
Well that is not the community's problem.
Haverhill Rovers have had enough time to sort their present ground out and ask for grants to do so.

If anybody else is against this just contact Cllr Gordon Cox, at least he listens and tries to get something done or better still tell the council yourself that you don't want it.

Do it now, don't leave it too late.

Appeal after teenagers threatened

POLICE are appealing for witnesses after teenagers were threatened in two separate incidents on Saturday night.

At around 10.10pm a teenage boy was approached by a small, dark coloured car as he walked along Bourne Road, Haverhill.

The car then pulled alongside the victim and a man, who was in the passenger seat, threatened the teenager forcing him to hand over his mobile phone.

The man, who is described as white, in his late teens, with dark hair, then sped off in the vehicle.

The offender was wearing a black cap and a black hooded top.

Just 10 minutes earlier, on Strasbourg Square, Haverhill, two teenage boys were also approached by a small, dark coloured vehicle.

The car drove from Millfields Way into Ingham Road and then parked at the rear of the Strasbourg Square flats.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A man, who was also in the passenger seat, threatened the two victims but they managed to run into a nearby pub.

Again the man is described as white and in his late teens, but there were three other people in the vehicle in this incident.

Det Sgt Stuart Jeans said the two crimes are being linked.

He said: "The fact that the descriptions of the offender, the vehicle and the times are pretty identical is suspicious."

"It is not very often that incidents happen like this in Haverhill so we are determined to find more information and find the people."

Anyone with any information should contact Det Con Paul Cappleman at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

Death case

A MAN is being prosecuted following a crash which led to the death of a 44-year-old woman.

Rhodie Povey, 26, of High Street, Stansfield, near Bury St Edmunds, has been charged with causing death by dangerous driving following the crash on the A143 at Thurlow on May 5.

He was driving a Porsche sports car which was in collision with a Citroen Saxo.

The Citroen driver, Jane Gatt, of Cavendish Court, Haverhill, died in Addenbrooke's Hospital shortly afterwards.

Two passengers in her car, a man and a woman, were left with serious injuries.

Povey is due to appear before magistrates at Bury St Edmunds on Tuesday.

Tidy up collects 32 bags of rubbish

VOLUNTEERS donned rubber gloves and grabbed the nearest bin liners for a large cleaning operation in Haverhill.

More than 32 bags of rubbish and larger items were collected when people set about litter-picking on the skate park on Howe

Road last Saturday.

The spruce-up was organised by the Haverhill Volunteer Centre and the East Town Park Rangers as part of a Big Tidy Up event, which is encouraging communities up and down the country to get out and tidy up the areas in which they live.

Rosie celebrates its silver jubilee

As the Rosie Maternity Hospital in Cambridge celebrates its 25th birthday, JOHN MORGAN looks back at a story of babies, a millionaire's mum, and Margaret Thatcher.

WITH the paint still fresh on the walls, the Rosie's first babies screamed their way into the world on October 5, 1983 – and thousands more have followed since.

The Rosie took Cambridge's NHS maternity care from cramped premises originally built as a Victorian workhouse to a 104-bed purpose-built hospital promising safer care for mothers and babies.

Despite being an NHS hospital, it took a £3 million donation from a city-born millionaire Sir David Robinson to get it built.

As staff and parents mark the anniversary, they celebrate in a maternity hospital rated as one of the "best performing" in England by the Healthcare Commission.

Bethany Felstead knows more about the place than most: she gave birth to Emma-Jane there on Thursday – and was born there herself on October 7, 1985. And her husband Marc was also a Rosie baby.

"The support the staff give you is fantastic and the facilities are brilliant," she said.

"I was a difficult customer – I wanted to be in water before the birth and to move around. The staff try their hardest here and do everything they can."

For anyone who has ever wondered about the name, the answer leads back to the founding of the hospital. In 1980, the East Anglian Regional Health Authority proposed that services should be moved from Mill Road Maternity Hospital, first built as a workhouse in 1838.

at 14 to work in his father's Cambridge bicycle shop before making a fortune in the TV rental business, put forward a £3 million donation – half the total cost. He chose the name Rosie in memory of his mum, who died giving birth to her 10th child in 1922.

But Sir David made one demand – the hospital must be built before the end of 1983.

That put Whitehall in a spin, with doubts that such a schedule could be met. According to the chairman of the East Anglian Regional Health Authority chairman, Sir Arthur South, Margaret Thatcher personally urged her health minister and the Department of Health to make the Rosie happen quickly. Sir Arthur said: "They did, and we had a hospital built probably faster than any other in the country."

Proud Lisbeth Bager was the first mum to give birth at the hospital, but perhaps the Rosie's most famous births came on May 2, 1985, when 28-year-old Jane Underhill of Burwell gave birth to six babies – two girls and four boys – in three minutes.

Midwife Sharon Shipp was well placed to see the difference the Rosie made, having worked at the hospital since it opened and at Mill Road Maternity Hospital for three years before that.

She said: "When we first came here, we were scared about being sucked into a great big hospital like Addenbrooke's."

"But there were advantages to that. We probably didn't appreciate that it would make things much safer.

"The more services you have at the site, the safer it is for women."

The move also meant midwives no longer had to cook patients' meals themselves or send blood samples to Addenbrooke's by taxi.

In 2005, the Rosie chalked up another success with the opening of a midwifery-led birth unit – designed to offer a more relaxed, "home-from-home" alternative to the traditional delivery wards.

Many parents feel great affection for the Rosie. "People who come here always say they find it very supportive and friendly," says Sharon.

"With patient choice, women can deliver at a location they choose. Even women that move away like to come back here."

Low Cost-No Effort For You!

Pupils to grow own food

GREEN-fingered children are looking forward to the spring after receiving a wide range of gardening equipment. Pupils at Haverhill's Clements Community Primary School were given the equipment by supermarket giant Sainsbury's. With everything from shovels to seeds and pots to pitchforks, the school says the equipment is "perfect" for its new grow, cook, eat scheme, which has recently been launched to promote healthy eating amongst the three to eight-year-olds. Staff hope that by the end of the spring they will be able to use fresh produce from the school's kitchen garden in cookery lessons. Carol Clanciola, acting senior teacher, said: "We are so grateful to Sainsbury's for this donation - it is so worthwhile. "There is lots of equipment, including rakes, brooms, seeds and everything we need to set up our new kitchen garden, which we hope to start this term. "The aim is to grow healthy foods on site and cook with them so that the children can eat them. "That way the pupils are learning that healthy foods are the best." Steve Venters, Sainsbury's Haverhill store manager, presented the school with the equipment.

Chance to have say

HAVERHILL residents will be able to voice their concerns at a meeting on Monday. The Safer Neighbourhood Team is inviting all residents and local businesses to attend the event, which is being held at the Clements Resource Centre at 9.30am. A spokesman said: "The meeting will be a perfect opportunity for an informal chat with the team and discussions about people's needs, concerns and expectations."

Speed cut for A1307

A CUT in the speed limit on a notorious road has been agreed by councillors.

Cutting the speed limit on the A1307 at Linton from 60mph to 50mph was agreed by the South Cambridgeshire Traffic Management Area Joint Committee.

Lowering the speed limit between Linton and the dual carriageway to the east of Linton was recommended by the county council.

There have been four deaths on that stretch of road in the last five years, with three serious and 18 other injuries, a report said.

Two objectors argued reducing the speed limit would not cut deaths, as speed was not the key factor.

The report stated: "Analysis of the accident data indicates 'excessive speed' as a factor in three of the accidents, while six others have 'speed' as a factor but do not actually state that the driver was exceeding 60mph."

Jean genies raise cash

CHILDREN swapped their school uniforms for denim last Friday to raise money for research into genetic disorders. Hundreds of families across Haverhill took part in Jeans for Genes – the national fundraising event which sees millions of people donning their jeans for charity. Pupils from Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College raised £430 by donning denim and students at Castle Hill Middle School £280.

Matt Bryant, teacher of business and citizenship co-ordinator at Castle Manor, said: "We are really proud of how much both our school and Castle Hill has managed to raise. "It is brilliant how such a simple thing like changing your normal clothing for the day can help raise so much money for such a worthwhile cause." Youngsters and staff at Busy Bees nursery, which is based at Haverhill's Castle playing field, also got into the fundraising spirit and raised £81. Around 40 two to four-year-olds put on their jeans and staff even sold special cartoon character zip-pulls to raise extra funds. Tracey Bramwell, pre-school assistant, said: "We had such a fun day and at the same time raised money which can help fund serious research. "The children had a great time getting messy in their jeans and so did we." For more information go to www.jeansforgenes.com

Plastics service is green for go

PLASTIC recycling has begun in South Cambridgeshire.

The council's kerbside plastic bottle collection scheme kicked off this week when Bartlow, Castle Camps, Horseheath, Linton, Sawston and Shudy Camps became the first villages to use their extra green box for plastic bottles.

Residents in other villages will be able to put out their bottles for collection over the coming fortnight, on the same day as their regular green bin and box collection.

Any type of plastic bottle will be collected for recycling, including those for milk, sprays and detergent.

Residents are asked to remove the lids and tops and rinse and squash the bottles before putting them out for collection.

Triggers, lids and tops should be put in the black bin with normal household waste.

Residents can check the recycling timetable in their autumn South Cambs magazine or online at www.scambs.gov.uk/plastics

Special event for business owners

BUSINESS owners are being invited to a special event in Haverhill on Tuesday, October 21.

Money Back Heaven (MBH), a new shopping experience which aims to benefit business owners with the help of the UK's top retailers, will be the subject of a meeting at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College, on Chalkstone Way.

MBH is said to offer "excellent" online promotions and money back on all purchases, as well as offering sponsorship through local charities, schools or fundraising ideas.

Graeme Gibson, founder of the new initiative, will lead the meeting.

It will take place at 6.30pm in the school's conference room.

Tickets are £7.50 for non-members and £15 for members, which will include a buffet.

Spence could be in running for Met job

BY John Deex

Email: editorial@saffronwaldenweeklynews.co.uk

CAMBRIDGESHIRE'S Chief Constable Julie Spence could be in the running for the Metropolitan Police Commissioner's job.

High-level sources within the force have confirmed Mrs Spence "has not ruled out" applying for the position.

Sir Ian Blair announced his resignation last week, saying he could not continue without the support of London mayor Boris Johnson.

Appointing Sir Ian's successor involves the Metropolitan Police Authority (MPA) and the mayor, with the final decision being made by Home Secretary, Jacqui Smith. Mrs Spence and Ms Smith have crossed swords over funding of the Cambridgeshire force, with Mrs Spence asking for enough cash for 100 extra officers to deal with an influx of migrants.

The county boss also criticised the Government's controversial decision not to backdate the 2.5 per cent police pay rise.

If Mrs Spence – president of

the British Association for Women in Policing – did get the job she would be the first female officer to hold it.

Mrs Spence would not be the only Cambridgeshire officer to have held the role – Lord John Stevens, a former deputy chief constable in the county, held the post in 2000.

Last week, Sir Ian said the London mayor told him he wanted a "change in leadership" at the top of the Met.

Sir Ian said he would leave the job on December 1 after Ms Smith had "reluctantly but gracefully" accepted his resignation.

Deputy Commissioner Sir Paul Stephenson will take over as acting commissioner.

New allegations a friend of Sir Ian was paid £15,000 to make over his image were published in the Daily Mail. Officers led by HM Chief Inspector of Constabulary Sir Ronnie Flanagan will investigate payments of millions pounds to a firm run by Andy Miller, a skiing friend of Sir Ian.

The allegations come amid a background of turmoil at the Met. Two senior ethnic minority officers, Assistant Commissioner Tarique Ghaffur and Commander Ali Dizaei, have been suspended.

Mr Ghaffur accused the force and Sir Ian of racial discrimination. Mr Dizaei's suspension by the MPA prompted the Met's Black Police Association to sever links with senior managers.

Sir Ian faced calls to go after the death of Jean Charles de Menezes months into his tenure and when the force was found guilty of health and safety breaches. He faced a storm of protest in 2006 after saying "almost nobody" could understand why the Soham murders were the country's biggest story.

The Home Secretary said she would interview "one or more candidates" and listen to views from the MPA and the mayor before deciding.

Bookmakers William Hill have made Sir Paul Stephenson favourite at 2/5.

Neither Cambridgeshire police or Julie Spence have made any official comment.

£80m cash bid to fund new growth

A BID for more than £80 million has been made to the Government to support new developments across the region.

Cash would be spent on the county's growth programme including facilities for Northstowe, Huntingdon, Ely and St Neots – the bid has been developed by Cambridgeshire's six local authorities.

A key part of the bid, submitted by Cambridgeshire Horizons, which is overseeing delivery of infrastructure for 73,000 new homes, is a rolling fund which will allow public money to be spent on projects up front which will then be repaid by developers once houses are sold. The scheme means facilities are in place when early residents move into new communities.

Other projects will aim to improve countryside access and green spaces, provide additional transport infrastructure, renewable energy, water studies, new community facilities, and other community development projects.

The bid has been made to the Housing Growth Fund for 2009/10 and 2010/11.

Alex Plant, chief executive of Cambridgeshire

Horizons, said: "This funding is vital to help us deliver sustainable new communities with all of the facilities and infrastructure they need to flourish."

"Using public money imaginatively is particularly important in the more difficult housing market we now face if we are to maintain the pace of progress we need."

"It remains critical for us to deliver more homes, including affordable homes, for people in need. Additional housing and infrastructure is also essential to maintain economic prosperity."

"Our bid reflects a wide range of projects that will improve the quality of life of both future and existing residents."

Cambridgeshire Horizons has already received just under £15 million from the fund which was put towards a number of projects including research into the use of renewable energy at Northstowe, improvements to Grafham Water Centre, a range of projects to support growth in market towns and measures to support green travel, including the guided busway.

A decision on the bid is expected before Christmas.

Teens Go Wild for new nature site

TEENAGERS were at one with nature at Haverhill's new wildlife area.

The Haverbury Housing Partnership, which launched its youth forum in June, held its first official meeting at the site to celebrate the progress both the forum and the mini reserve have seen. The Go Wild site, on Manor Road, is just one of the projects the forum has been involved with since it began, and has been set up using £4,500 worth of grants from Haverbury.

With something for all types of creatures, it now boasts a nature trail, pond, preserved fox burrow and community seating areas. Plant life and habitats are also being maintained and protected. Run by the Haverhill Volunteer Centre in partnership with the East Town Park Rangers, the area will be used by schools and local groups to learn more about wildlife and natural habitats. The forum has also seen significant progress and only four months after being launched it boasts more than 30 members aged 13-18. It was set up to encourage young people to get involved in community projects and have their say on social issues.

Couple take over their dream pub

TWO villagers are taking over their local and fulfilling a dream to run their own pub. Sam and Danielle Ahlquist will be manning the pumps at the Cock pub in Castle Camps and serving up food in the restaurant. Sam is a chef and has worked in several local pubs, including the White Hart at Great Yeldham, the Three Hills at Barlow and the White Horse at Withersfield, before he started work as one of the chefs at the Cock two years ago. Danielle has also done bar work and when the opportunity came up to take over the pub in the village where they lived, the couple jumped at it. Sam said: "It has always been a dream of mine to run my own pub and I said I would do it by the time I was 35, so I am 12 years early. Our aim is to keep everything completely home cooked and to introduce a new menu later on."

Help for migrant workers

MIGRANT and minority workers in Suffolk are to get drugs advice and support from Suffolk Constabulary and its partners, with the launch of new leaflets and visits to workplaces.

It follows research carried out by members of the county's Drug Strategy Group, which found that some literature was not available in many languages spoken by residents of and visitors to Suffolk. There was also a lack of information that could be given to those who cannot read.

The research identified that there is a lack of leaflets in Russian, Polish, Lithuanian, Kurdish, Portuguese and in an easy read format, aimed at making information available to people with learning difficulties. Cards have now been designed to outline the basic law around substance misuse, and details of agencies to contact for help and advice. They have been printed in colours which are easiest to view for people with eyesight problems.

The project is jointly funded between Suffolk Constabulary and Suffolk Drugs and Alcohol Action Team (DAAT).

Simon Aalders, from Suffolk DAAT, said: "It is vitally important that every part of our community has access to the right information. Local drug services are available to migrant workers, I hope these visits and cards will give them a chance to understand UK law and, if necessary, get help either for themselves, their friends or relatives before any problems become too serious."

Detective Chief Inspector David Skevington added: "Many foreign nationals arrive in Suffolk with no knowledge of UK laws, and where they can get any help they may need. By offering these cards and visits, it is hoped to give them a simple, clear guide to UK law, and a welcome from their local officers and other agencies who can support them with any problems."

NEXT week you can tuck into your favourite chocolates to celebrate National Chocolate Week.

From Monday, October 13 until Sunday you can enjoy seven days of guilt-free chocolate heaven.

Here are some interesting chocolate facts to get you in the mood:

- According to retailer Waitrose, the tastes of chocoholics is changing as shoppers are currently buying 50 per cent more dark chocolate than milk chocolate.
- The word 'chocolate' was originally derived from the Aztec word 'xocolatl' which means bitter water.
- The botanical name for the chocolate tree is Theobroma Cacao - which means 'Food of the Gods'.
- Chocolate is derived from Cocoa Beans. It was Cacao originally, but became Cocoa as a result of misspelling.

Cacao trees can only grow in tropical climates, either 20 degrees north or south of the equator with a year-round temperature of 21-25°C.

■ There are three main types of cocoa tree: Criollo - a fragile tree with a small yield that produces the best-flavoured beans; Forastero - the most common and produces the most cocoa beans, but there are the poorest quality and Trinitario - a cross between Criollo and Forastero. A robust tree with fairly good beans and a healthy yield.

■ Madagascar produces less than half a per cent of the world's cocoa beans but they're of the finest quality.

■ In 1900 Queen Victoria sent specially-made chocolate bars to the soldiers fighting in the Boer War as a New Year's greeting.

■ A massive three million tons of cocoa beans are processed each year worldwide.

Jazz singer set to Get Happy

JAZZ star Clare Teal returns to the Arts Theatre in Cambridge on Sunday for an evening of original songs and much loved classics. Starting out in music singing radio jingles she quickly worked her way up and was soon signed onto the same small jazz label as her friend Jamie Cullum. When Cullum became hot property vocal jazz shot back up the music industry's list of priorities and Clare was snapped up by Sony in a record breaking deal. In 2006 she sealed her popularity and critical acclaim by winning the BBC Jazz Vocalist of the Year award and as well as a singer she is known to many jazz fans for presenting Big Band Special on Radio Two.

She is currently touring in support of her latest album Get Happy which features her own material as well as reworkings of songs by Irving Berlin, Van Morrison and Roy Orbison. Clare Teal will be performing at the Arts Theatre at 7.45pm. Tickets are £10-£22.50. To book call (01223) 503333.

LPG delivers savings bonus

THERE was a time in the not-too-distant past when LPG was heralded as the answer to soaring fuel prices.

The government even offered motorists a grant to convert their vehicles to run on the alternative fuel. A few manufacturers began producing vehicles that ran on LPG and a network of LPG filling stations sprang up around the country in preparation for the revolution. So why aren't we all driving LPG cars already? Because the government decided to pull the plug on the grants and, left with a conversion fee of around £1,500 to £2,000 and a dwindling number of filling stations offering LPG, drivers decided perhaps it wasn't such a great idea after all.

But now LPG is back on the radar in the form of Proton's new GEN-2 ecoLogic cars. The Malaysian manufacturer has been supplying more 300 of the dual-fuel cars to the Humberside police for the last ten years and the boys in blue say they have made savings of around £300,000 during that time. With that in mind, Proton has extended the dual-fuel system to its passenger cars in the hope that the potential savings on offer will appeal to the economical motorist.

The only engine on offer with the GEN-2 ecoLogic is a 1.6-litre 110bhp Cam Pro unit. It's worth remembering that this powerplant has been developed in collaboration with Lotus, which Proton owns, and it provides a better drive than you might expect. It produces reasonable torque in the mid and upper ranges but you'll need to work the gearbox to get some speed up at lower revs. Fortunately this isn't too much of a hardship as the standard manual gearbox is a slick system. 0-60mph is reached in 12.6 seconds and it can achieve a top speed of 124mph. Maximum torque of 108lb ft produced at 4,000rpm.

The GEN-2 ecoLogic runs on petrol for around 20 seconds after turning the ignition key, before switching to LPG when it is most economical to do so. This means you will have to demonstrate a certain amount of forward thinking and ensure that there is always a bit of petrol in the tank so you don't get caught out. But aside from that it's a hassle-free system, with the fuel source controlled by a switch next to the gearstick. Four lights next to the switch act as a fuel gauge and tell you how much LPG you have left in the tank. Switching between the two is seamless, with only a very small loss of power noticeable when running on LPG and even then, only when climbing steep hills.

■ THE PROTON GEN-2 ECOLOGIC... a better drive than you might expect.

At around 60p a litre for LPG, a Proton GEN-2 ecoLogic is going to be very cheap to run. Fuel consumption is increased slightly when using LPG but not enough to cancel out the benefits brought from the low cost of the alternative fuel. As previously mentioned, converting a car to run on LPG will cost around £1,500 to £2,000 but Proton has absorbed that cost themselves, meaning the initial outlay for one of the LPG models will not cost a penny more than a standard model.

Basically

If you drive 10,000 miles in one year with the cost of petrol and LPG at £1.12 and 58p respectively, your savings should be in the region of £500. That's the sort of saving that shouldn't be considered lightly.

Think of repair costs when buying used car

IT'S becoming increasingly important in today's tough financial climate to factor in as many costs as possible when buying a used car.

Fuel and insurance bills are fairly easy to sort out, but the real unknown quantity is repair costs.

You might be one of those lucky buyers who drops on a real used bargain and then never has a bit of trouble with the car – but it's a sad fact of life that many drivers do experience mechanical breakdowns with second-hand wheels, and repairs rarely come cheap.

Which is why listings such as Warranty Direct's reliability index are a good thing, and provide strong, realistic pointers towards what those breakdowns could cost, should they occur.

Across 10 of the biggest-selling cars in the UK in 2007, for example, Warranty Direct's index reveals that the Vauxhall Vectra is the costliest to run, with an average bill of £315.28.

Even so, says Warranty Direct, one of Britain's leading car warranty providers, it is not as likely to break down as often as the hatchbacks from Peugeot and Renault – where every year a third of the latter's Mégane small family models record a failure, and a £246 repair bill.

Overall, Renault's Espace is the least reliable car in the index's top 100 – which can be viewed online at www.reliabilityindex.co.uk – with an astonishing 71 per cent breaking down in years four or five.

Not surprisingly, given their reputation to date, the cheapest vehicles to run according to Warranty Direct are small Japanese cars.

Toyota's Yaris and the Honda Jazz attract average yearly remedial bills of just £89 and £106 respectively, and are joined in the best 10 by the Nissan Micra, Ford Ka and Vauxhall Corsa.

"The cost of parts and labour on some models is shocking, and really comes into play once a car leaves the protection of its manufacturer warranty," Warranty Direct's Duncan McClure Fisher says.

"A lack of reliability and repeated visits to the workshop mean the only real winner here is the garage."

So, before taking the plunge with a used-car buy, it is worth taking the trouble to check out what this firm has listed as possible repair costs.

Meanwhile, there is light showing on the motor trade's second-hand sales horizon, according to one leading UK trade price-guide publisher.

While new car sales in September proved difficult for many dealers, Britain's used-car market enjoyed a minor revival, reports EurotaxGlass's, publisher of Glass's Guide to Used Car Values.

This improvement in fortunes was most notable for its polarised nature, with consumer demand governed more than usual by price and size of car.

■ COSTLY . . . Vectra has high bills.

"The biggest increase in retail activity was concentrated on cars priced up to £5,000, although demand for those priced up to £10,000 was also reasonably positive," explains Adrian Rushmore, managing editor of Glass's Guide.

"Small and supermini cars attracted the greatest revival of interest, with many lower-medium family cars also being actively sought. Upper-medium cars fared moderately well, provided the engine size was no greater than two litres."

"Beyond this point, the market appeared to be less certain, but the fairly severe retail price realignments that have been necessary in recent months have had the effect of making many of these premium cars a more tempting proposition for consumers."

■ RELIABLE . . . Yaris rarely goes wrong.

Fiat expands Eco line-up

A NEW version of Fiat's Panda city car has just gone on sale - the Panda Eco.

Joining the Bravo in Fiat's Eco ranks, the Panda has a number of features including low rolling resistance tyres and modifications to the drive system to achieve a CO2 emission figure of 119g/km.

The new emission rating means that the Panda Eco qualifies for exceptionally low car tax while the changes have also improved the fuel economy figure. The

■ THE FIAT BRAVO ECO . . . high mpg model

Panda Eco will now return 56.5mpg from either of the two engine options. The 1.1-litre unit which is available with the Active spec Panda produces 54bhp while the 1.2-litre engine in the Dynamic version of the Fiat pushes out 60bhp.

Each model features a good level of equipment and costs £100 more than the equivalent standard car, standing at £7,105 and £7,705 for the Active and Dynamic respectively.

FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

Stiebrins goal blast is boost for Arrendene

A RAMPANT Arrendene Athletic cruised into the third round of the Suffolk Sunday Trophy with much of the credit going to four-goal striker Aaron Stiebrins.

The game began evenly, but Prince of Wales managed to draw first blood when they followed up from a rebound after Athletic keeper Liam Savage had palmed an effort away.

Prince of Wales 1 Arrendene Athletic 4
SUFFOLK SUNDAY TROPHY, SECOND ROUND

Stiebrins levelled the score with a low drive from the edge of the box before Gareth Edwards headed against the bar.

After the break, Athletic were dealt a big blow when defender Ben Fisher limped off injured.

For the next 20 minutes, Athletic were on the back foot.

Dan McBrien then set up the second Athletic goal for Stiebrins and, shortly afterwards, Luke Jobson provided the same player with his hat-trick.

Athletic saved the best until last when a fine passing move found Stiebrins just inside the box and his curling effort capped a superb display by the visitors.

Iron's the top man

WEST Wratting Under-9 A hosted a Saffron Walden team with a 100 per cent Cambs Mini League, Division A record and pulled off a remarkable 6-1 victory, which saw their keeper Iron twice net with goal-kicks.

From kick off the home team outworked and outplayed the visitors, soon taking the lead through Prince before Eldred added a second shortly afterward.

Walden looked dangerous, but found Iron in man-of-the-match form.

Prince added his second before a five-minute spell saw Iron score twice from his goalkicks – the first leaving his opposite number with no chance, the second slightly more fortuitous.

Walden scraped one back, only for Prince to complete his hat-trick.

■ A GOAL direct from a corner by Henderson opened the scoring for Grampian Gunners Under-10A, but they went down 2-1 to Saffron Walden B.

Webb and Grace for Gunners had half-chances before Walden grabbed an equaliser.

An own goal gave Walden the lead which they held to the end.

parts in the first round of the Cambridge and District Colts League Cup.

Tom Middle's long-range strike was all they had to show after the first half but goals by Alex Carter (3), Middle and Will Bailey put a more realistic slant on the scoreline.

■ TWO goals from Dale Pryke gave the Grampian Gunners U15 a well-deserved share of the points with a 2-2 draw in their Cambs Colts League, Division A match.

Pryke gave Gunners a first-half lead, but Lakenheath levelled after the interval.

Ten minutes from time Lakenheath got a penalty and netted from the rebound after keeper Baldwin's initial save.

Pryke rescued a point with a chipped effort.

■ HAVERHILL Under-14 Girls travelled to Saffron Walden for an S-Tech League Cup match and came away 5-2 winners, despite going two goals down early on.

YOUTH RUGBY

Talbot's fine double is all in vain

HAVERHILL Under-12 played some good attacking rugby with ball in hand when they visited Mistley.

They took a two tries to one lead into the second half thanks to Dominic Talbot's brace and some stout defending by their pack, which was under strength because of injuries.

After the break, Mistley's bigger forwards began to pick up loose ball and drive their way over Haverhill's try-line.

Justin Hall's additional try was scant reward for a great team effort by Haverhill's depleted squad as they went down 27-19.

■ HAVERHILL Under-15 went down 12-10 to Witham in a tense match, played in dreadful conditions.

A battle for supremacy in the middle of the pitch was finally broken by Henry Browne's try on 22 minutes.

The second half saw a quick ball out of the breakdown reach Gareth Lester on the wing, and he put Haverhill further 10-0 ahead. George Foley's dive over the line was deemed to have been knocked on to deny Haverhill a further score. Witham did not give up and took advantage of five missed tackles to score a converted try. More missed challenges then led Witham's winning score.

■ In an effort to encourage more sport played by youngsters at middle school age, Haverhill Rugby Club, in association with Sport Unlimited, are offering a 10-week programme of introductory rugby on Saturdays (9.15-10.15am). The course, which starts on Saturday, is designed for boys and girls to have fun and exercise in a friendly environment with RFU coaches giving basic tuition. It will use tag rugby sessions to enable all children to participate.

GOLF

Baker joins the uppercrust...

A DOUBLE success by juniors in the midweek competition at Haverhill Golf Club was followed up by a repeat in the Medal, as Edward Baker and Charlie Sigler took the low and high sections.

Baker was on a winner from the first green, where he walked away with an eagle two and went on to reduce his handicap to a single figure after handing in a nett 62 card.

Results:

■ Haverhill seniors had a busy week, playing three matches. The first was away to Colne Valley, where they came close to a whitewash but the two home games, which followed, saw Fynn Valley and Meridian beaten by the same margin of 5½-2½.

■ Anna Fairhead and guest Ray Foreman headed the result sheet in the Mixed Invitation round. Forty stableford points in a four-ball, better-ball competition got them home by one point from Linda Bugg and Neil Madcay.

The same margin behind were third-placed Paul Wallace, along with Yvonne McDonnell.

■ The remaining two summer match play finals saw Oliver Cracknell retain the Signpost Scratch Cup at the expense of Kevin Eldred, while, in the Mug's Cup, Graham Cox produced some golf well below his mark, shooting into a six-hole lead after nine against Chris Ryan.

From then there was no stopping him as he held on for a 6&5 win.

ATHLETICS

Allen's golden efforts earn a regional call-up

Haverhill-based athlete Luke Allen took up the challenge of competing in his first decathlon in a junior men's section of the South of England Open Championships at Bedford.

The competition, which also incorporated the East of England, Suffolk County and West Suffolk championships, resulted in 17-year-old Allen winning a haul of four gold medals.

He competed over two days with five events each day.

Day one was devoted to the 100m, long jump, shot putt, high jump and 400m, while day two saw the 110m hurdles, discus, pole vault, javelin and concluded with the 1500m.

Allen's points total was 4,612 and, as a result of this, he has now been asked to train with the regional squad.

A member of the West Suffolk Athletic Club, Allen is a student of West Suffolk College in Bury St Edmunds.

RUGBY UNION

Haverhill battle back to claim league victory

Haverhill did not let a disappointing start put them off their stride as they won 20-15 at Dereham in Division Two of the Eastern Counties League on Saturday. The hosts scored two tries and one conversion inside the opening 12 minutes, but Haverhill remained calm.

And skipper Paul Bergin said: "They caught us unawares and then we didn't settle down and they burst through to score again. We wanted to see what we were made of."

"We took the scrum in hand and we won virtually everything against the head." After scrumming their way down the field, Haverhill pulled a try back with a score from Bergin, which was converted by Jake Plumridge.

Dereham kicked further ahead, but Plumridge jinked his way past four players to cross the try-line, and his conversion made it 15-14 at the break.

And two penalties from Plumridge secured Haverhill the victory.

Bergin added: "At 12-0 down in 10 minutes away from home, it's never a great start so to come back shows the character we're getting in the side."

"It was nice to have a win in Norfolk which is very rare."

FOOTBALL: LATEST NEWS FROM HAMLET CROFT

Rovers stay rock bottom

■ TOUGH LUCK ... Paul Jenkin, who saw his effort hit the woodwork at Ely.

Haverhill Rovers have twice in a week allowed vital points to slip by in their quest to climb off the bottom of the Ridgeons League, Premier Division.

On Saturday, they squandered a 3-1 lead as fellow strugglers Whitton netted twice to salvage a point at Hamlet Croft.

Then, on Tuesday evening, they lost by the only goal of the match, despite creating some good chances when they made the short journey to take on Ely City at the Unwin Ground.

Against Whitton, the visitors went ahead after five minutes with Chris Williams capitalising on an error by Rovers goalkeeper Ed Campbell.

But the hosts were soon level when Neil Hammond's cross was headed into his own net by United defender Simon Betts.

Ryan Kent and Hammond put Rovers in charge at 3-1 before Whitton reduced the arrears in the 64th minute through Williams.

And he completed his hat-trick four minutes from time, seizing on the rebound after the ball came back off the bar.

It was a case of what might have been when Rovers visited Ely and endured some bad luck in front of goal.

Peter Hinde struck in the 41st minute to hand Ely maximum points.

The goal came following some neat build-up work from the hosts and the midfielder scored after Jim Hollingsworth had repelled two efforts.

It was not going to be Haverhill's night, despite going close to finding the target on several occasions.

Paul Jenkin hit the woodwork, while Andy Pettit was also denied by the frame of the goal.

■ Haverhill face the toughest possible task in their quest to climb off the foot of the league on Saturday when Lowestoft Town are the visitors to Hamlet Croft.

The Suffolk side, who were last season's beaten FA Vase finalists, are currently top of the table with a seven-point lead over their closest rivals.
